Colonel Plays Minor Role in Church Wedding of Theodore
 Jr. This Afternoon

Invitations Sent to 1,500 For Reception at Home of the Bride's Mother.

(Special from United Press.)

New York, June 20.—For once Col. Theodore Roosevelt is going to figure in an important function without playing one of the leading roles. These will fall to Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Butler Alexander, who at 4 this afternoon will be married in the 5th Avenue Presbyterian church before probably the greatest social gathering of the season.

Kermit was sent to about 1,500 persons and the church will be crowded. For the reception at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, an aunt of the bride, at 4 West 55th between 890 and 900 invitations were issued. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Gordon Russell of New Jersey. Miss Alexander will be attended by Mrs. Snowden Fahnestock as matron of honor, Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Miss Harriet Alexander and Miss Janetta Alexander. Miss Jean Delano and Miss Jesse Millington-Drake of Paris.

Kermit will act as best man owing to the death of the father of Evelyn Irving, first chosen for this position. Teddy, Jr., sent a wireless to Kermit at sea last Thursday to engage his services. The ushers will be Hamilton Fish, Jr., an old Harvard friend of the bridegroom, Francis Roche, Fulton Cutting, Jr., George Roosevelt, Monroe Robinson, Gratton Chapman, E. Morgan Gilbert, Elliot Cutler and John Wilmore.

The bridegroom will walk through a lane of lilies of the valley from the church door to the chancel. Lilies of the valley and bride's roses will carpet the steps of the altar, and the chancel rail will be hung with garlands of white roses. The bride and bridegroom will kneel upon a predieu of white satin cushions over which will tower the largest floral arch ever seen in New York, made of pink rambling roses.

Florists and decorators took charge of the church last night and their work will not be completed until a short time before the guests begin arriving. Nathan Franko's famous orchestra will play during the assembling of the guests and the ceremony.

Miss Alexander's bridal gown is of white satin with point lace and orange blossoms. It is an empire gown with high neck and three quarter length sleeves. The collar and yoke are of rare Valenciennes lace. The bride's maids will carry pink roses and forget-me-nots.

When young Roosevelt and his bride intend going on their honeymoon has been kept secret. He is due in San Francisco on July 1, where he will act as manager of the Pacific coast branch of the carot manufacturing of Thompsonville, Conn.

Theodore Langenham, a popular mail clerk of the West End Post office, tomorrow at 9 a. m. at St. Augustine's church. After a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride they will visit Washington, D. C. They will be at home to their friends after July 1, at 65 Park avenue.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dial are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, which makes a trio of boys for the Dial household and the professor, including himself, will soon be able to announce the Dial male quartet.

Bay Rum.

Bay rum is manufactured from the dried leaves of Pimento acris. Bay rum is procured by distillation, and this in a very simple manner. The leaves are picked from the trees and then dried. In this state they are placed in the retort, which is then filled with water, and the process of distillation is carried on. The vapor is then condensed in the usual way and forms what is known as "bay oil," a very small quantity of which is required for each punchoon of rum.

FALSE ALARM BOYS

Two Lads of Tender Age Are Declared Incurable

George Troland and John Hogue, the youngsters arrested Saturday for ringing in a false alarm of fire Friday night, were sentenced to the State's Reformatory School in Meriden during their minority in the city court today. Each is charged with being incorrigible, that charge being substituted for the charge of sounding false alarms of fire. They pleaded not guilty.

The boys' parents were in court to plead with them. Young Troland is 15. His home is in Edwin street. John Hogue is 14. He lives in Hollister avenue. They appealed from the sentence of the city court, but being unable to furnish bail of $1,000 they went to the Reform school this afternoon in custody of Court Officer Finnegan. There they will await the next session of the court of Common Pleas, in September.

SEA WHEN STEAMER GOES DOWN AFTER COLLISION.

Liverpool, June 20.—Ten members of the steamer La Rochelle from Bayonne, N.
